Instructions to Your Bank (Please read and note before signing below)

- The first installment (or the whole subscription amount in the case of annual standing orders) is always due on the 1st day in the month immediately following (or on that day if dated the 1st) the date this form is dated and signed below. For example, if the date below were 28th April 2005 the first installment payment would be due on 1st May 2005.

As this form has had to come via JCI UK for administration purposes it may have taken several weeks to reach you, meaning that the first installments of my subscription may already be due.

- Therefore, please transfer the appropriate amount of money to JCI UK's account immediately upon receipt of this mandate to bring my subscription payments up to date (based on the date below) and then commence regular monthly, quarterly or annual payments as per my instruction.

IMPORTANT LEGAL INFORMATION - Please read before signing below.

In signing below I have understood that membership of JCI United Kingdom is by annual subscription in advance, and that I have chosen to accept an offer from JCI United Kingdom to pay this subscription in either monthly or quarterly installments over the next 12 months. Should I wish to cancel my membership of JCI United Kingdom or, I cancel my standing order prior to the final payment being made, I hereby agree that I will be liable to pay any outstanding amounts to JCI United Kingdom in respect of my current annual membership subscription.

I have read and fully understand the Important Legal Information set out above and agree to be bound by it. This cancels any previous standing order mandates in favour of JCI United Kingdom.

(In the case of existing membership renewals switching to standing order, please leave 'Date' field blank and JCI UK head office will add your renewal date before sending to your bank)
